Speech of the President at the Great War Meeting in Washington.

There was a great assemblage gathered at the east front of the Capitol at Washington on the afternoon of August 6th, at which the Mayor of Washington presided. The object of the meeting was to declare the Union and War to the end feeling of the inhabitants of the District of Columbia. Expressive resolutions were adopted. The most notable incident of the meeting was a speech by President Lincoln. In response to impatient calls, he advanced to the platform and thus spoke:

FELLOW CITIZENS: I believe there is no precedent for my appearing before you on this occasion [applause], but it is also true that there is no precedent for you being here yourselves, [applause and laughter,] and I offer in justification of myself and of you that upon examination I have found nothing in the Constitution against it. [Renewed applause.] I, however, have an impression that there are younger gentlemen who will entertain you better, [voices—"No, none—none can do better than yourself. Go on."] and better address your understanding, than I will or could, and therefore I propose but to detain you a moment longer. ["Go on! Tar and feather the rebels!"]

I am very little inclined on any occasion to say anything unless I hope to produce some good by it. [A voice—"You do that good."] The only thing I think of just now not likely to be better said by some one else, is a matter in which we have heard some other persons blame me for what I did myself. [Voices—"What is it?"] There has been a very wide-spread attempt to have a quarrel between General McClellan and the Secretary of War. Now, I occupy a position which enables me to observe at least, these two gentlemen are not so much opposed as some pretending to be their friends. [Cries of "Good."] General McClellan's attitude is such that in the very selfishness of his nature, he cannot but wish to be successful, and I hope he will—and the Secretary of War is in precisely the same situation. If the military commanders in the field cannot be successful, not only the Secretary of War, but myself for the time being the master of them both, cannot be but failures. [Laughter and applause.] I know Gen. McClellan wishes to be successful, and I know he does not wish it any more than the Secretary of War for him, and both of them together no more than I wish it. [Applause and cries of "Good."] Sometimes we have a dispute about how many men Gen. McClellan has had, and those who would disparage him say that he has had a very large number, and those who would disparage the Secretary of War insist that Gen. McClellan has had a very small number. The basis for this is, there is always a wide difference, and on this occasion perhaps a wider one between the grand total on McClellan's roll and the men actually fit for duty, and those who would disparage him talk of the grand total on paper, and those who would disparage the Secretary of War talk of those at present fit for duty. General McClellan has sometimes asked for things that the Secretary of War did not give him. Gen. McClellan is not to blame for asking what he wanted and needed, and the Secretary of War is not to blame for not giving when he had none to give. [Applause, laughter and cries of "good, good."] And I say here, as far as I know, the Secretary of War has withheld no one thing at any time in my power to give him. [Wild applause, and a voice—"Give him enough now."] I have no accusation against him. I believe he is a brave and able man, [applause,] and I stand here as justice requires me to do, to take upon myself what has been charged on the Secretary of War, as withholding from him.

I have talked longer than I expected to do, [cries of "No, no, go on,"] and now I avail myself of my privilege of saying no more.

Such a frank and kindly speech ought to hush the carpings of newspaper hypocrites and teach all a lesson of patience and charity.

MONDAY MORNING SEPT 1[illegible] 1862

Election of United States Senator

As will be seen in our reports of proceedings of Joint Convention of the Legislative Assembly, Friday last Benjamin F Harding of Marion county was elected United States Senator for the State of Oregon, to fill the place made vacant by the death of Hon E D Baker The election took place in the afternoon of that day upon the 30th ballot and resulted as follows

Those voting for Mr Harding were, of the Senate—Messrs Ballard Chrisman Curl Drew, Greenwood Gunn Helton McBride Taylor and Wagner—10 of the House—Messrs Blair Cummins Engle, Humason Haines, Hemingway McClure Mintt Moores, Richardson, Reed, Smith, Stevenson Simpson, Van Dyke, Wilkins Witham, and Mr Speaker—28 Total vote received 28 necessary to a choice 2[illegible]

Of the other candidates voted for upon this ballot, we give the following result Those voting for H W Corbett were—Messrs Harvey, Mitchell and Mr President of the Senate, and Messrs Converse Gillette, Kerns McCully, McCoy Wasserman Wilson and Watson, of the House Judge Williams received five votes Whiteaker three and blank one

The highest number each candidate received during the thirty times balloting, was as follows: T. H Pearne, 11 votes on the 3d, 7th 17th and 18th ballots His name was withdrawn after the 22d ballot Judge Williams received 10 votes upon the 9th, 12 upon the 10th, 15 upon the 11th, 18 upon the 25th 23 upon the 27th, and 16 upon the 29th ballot Mr O. Jacobs received 16 upon the 15th and 23 upon the 16th ballot Elisha Applegate received 18 upon the 8th ballot Jesse Applegate received 10 votes upon the 11th ballot Dr. Watkins received 17 votes upon the 23d ballot. B F Harding received 16 upon the 25th, 18 upon the 27th, 21 upon the 28th, 24 upon the 29th, and 28 upon the 30th ballot The three secesh members voted every time for Whiteaker

We have not room at this time to offer any remarks upon the result of this election, but shall take occasion to do so hereafter We simply say, however, that although Mr Harding may not be, and in fact was not the choice of a large portion of our citizens, especially those who class themselves as Republicans Still, we hesitate not in the belief that he is a good UNION MAN—which is the main and in fact the only important qualification necessary for the possession, competency being included, as a matter of course

We are aware of the fact that many Republicans claimed, as a matter of courtesy, that the vacancy occasioned by Senator Baker's death should have been filled by a gentleman who has long been a member of the same party organization as that which this illustrious hero honored, but the election of Mr Harding has demonstrated beyond cavil that the Republican members of the Legislative Assembly are sincere in their professions of love for the Union party and those who help to make up that party, and that they are ready and have been ever since the rebellion broke out, to cast aside their party preferences and support any man whose loyalty is unquestioned The election of Mr. Harding will disappoint the secession element of this State much more than it does the Republican Unionists, as it is well known that the Republicans could have elected a radical member of that party had they united for that purpose

The Election in California

Another nail has been put into the coffin of secessionism on this coast The old McConnell secession party in California did not disband under the rebuke of public opinion administered to it at the election of last year Some of its leaders escaped to the rebel armies, but enough were left to keep up the party organization Previous to the late election the leaders sought to bring about a fusion with the Union democrats They talked Union and they printed Union in their papers—transforming themselves, as did their distinguished predecessors, into angels of light, but without changing their real characters In some few localities met with success—but generally the election has swept the State of the secession heresy Bigler, McConnell, Weller and Latham, and their interesting companions, are effectually disposed of The people of California are for sustaining the Government Of this there is no mistake and the movements of the secession party have consolidated the Union party and placed it in a condition of permanent ascendancy

Latham's Senatorial days are now numbered He threw the [illegible] to the secession scale, and he passes into forgetfulness Let him slide

The following gentlemen have been commissioned by Gov Gibbs, Notaries Public R W Dunbar Curry county, Wm Wells Umpqua, George H Belden, Eugene City Lane county Austin D Barnard George Mercer Corvallis, Benton county W Carey Johnson, Oregon City Clackamas county John J Hoffman, H C Coulson, Portland Multnomah county James A Odell Dalles Wasco Geo W Murray, Multnomah

WASHINGTON, Sept 6 12 M—Reports from the Upper Potomac say that heavy firing was heard yesterday in the direction of Nolan's Ferry The reported crossing of the rebels yesterday at the Point of Rocks is confirmed They did not however venture any considerable distance in the river The force consisted of a battalion of cavalry and 4 pieces of artillery After remaining a short time they re-crossed There is no doubt that the rebels are in strong force and are posted at several points on the opposite shore Considerable bodies of rebel infantry were plainly visible from this side during the day and camp fires at night indicate the presence of a larger force of rebels than was at first supposed

WASHINGTON Sept 7th—Assistant Surgeon Green of the 19th Indiana, returned from Zanesville to-day His account of the battle on Friday shows that the advantage was with the Federals up to noon At that time the rebels had begun to waver when the roaring of Longstreet's cavalry was heard coming to their aid This inspired them with hope, and on arrival of [illegible] regiments the Federals were in turn driven back Rebels express confidence of being able to get into Maryland, where they expect to obtain 50,000 recruits Rebels confirms reports of the existence of much destitution among the enemy but attributes the scarcity of food to the great difficulty of transportation According to rebel estimate they have had 120 000 men in late series of engagements

WASHINGTON Sept 8th—The following is received from the upper Potomac, dated 11 o'clock last night [illegible] in the neighborhood of Darnestown and Hyattsburg estimated at [illegible]000, [illegible] entirely of cavalry A body of the enemy 1 000 strong crossed the river last night at White's Ferry They are supposed to be [illegible] for Frederick M[illegible] From the [illegible] correspondent who has just returned from Poolsville we learn that on Thursday night the rebels commenced to cross infantry and artillery crossing in three places beside the bridge No resistance was offered to their crossing—Some Federal cavalry who were watching them, were attacked and chased to Poolsville About dusk, Gen Lee marched into Poolsville at the head of four regiments of infantry, crossed the Monocacy and passed along the bank of the stream toward Frederick The Tribune's Washington correspondent says that the rebel surgeon who amputated Gen Kearny's leg told one of our surgeons that I will [illegible] died

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a tight lock stitch, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine and from thick to thin, with rapidity and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above and below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam as in common sewing, tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed; one where are in constant contact with the work.

It should be little liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be fatiguing to the operator.

It should not form a ridge on the under side nor ravel.

From the Oregon Farmer

Our Mineral Resources.

To an observing mind that part of the American Continent lying on the Pacific slope of the Rocky Mountains is replete with interest The weary emigrant who plods his way over the vast mountains of Post Pliocene formation, and then toils through the deserts of vitrious lava, sees no use to which this great "waste of material" can be appropriated He dreams of running brooks with shady bowers, of verdant lawns covered with roving herds of domestic animals, but never of the vast mineral resources under his portable couch

The scientific man walks over "the God forsaken(?)" country and each crugged rock has a tongue to speak, while it points with unerring aim to the "noble metals" which lie entombed beneath it Of all the Pacific slope, from San Diego on the South to the mouth of the Columbia on the North, there is no part more prolific in mineral resources than Oregon, and especially its eastern frontier We have walked with Prof Larabee from the Rock Island Rapids on the Mississippi to the copper regions on Lake Superior, with him we have delved in the deep shafts of Galena We have stood with Dr Hitchcock in amazement on the bleak top of old Katahdin, and then at its base read the records of past ages in the "testimony of the rocks" We have with James K. Hall gone deep down in the bowels of the earth in the coal measure of Pennsylvania, and with Dr Evans scaled the mountain peaks and gathered up the dust in the placers of California—but in none of these spots have the multitude of evidences appeared that present themselves to the eye as leisurely we thread the deep savannas of our eastern border We have been astonished while surveying the chemung beds of Iowa, but no where have we seen the travestine and tufas to compare with those in the land of "web feet"

We have a specimen of slag before us while writing which in its ultimate analysis yields gold, silver, magnetic iron, copper, and tellurium. Almost every stone that paves our streets is of volcanic origin, while the whole face of the country from the Siskiyou Mountains to Puget Sound—and from the Pacific to the Sierra Nevadas is covered with columnar basalt. Beneath this once molten mass are the exhaustless fields of treasure Naturally enough their specific gravity being greater than common earth, they find their way through the baser matter and only rest when they strike the undisturbed metamorphic measure. Florence is not the only colchis of this N. W. coast. Wherever the earth in its violent spasmodic throes has turned itself inside out, there the miner will strike surface diggings, where "his pile" is soon made The demands of the young State are, that these spots be pointed out, and then the wealth of the earth will flow into the lap of the nation.

Oregon has no State Geologist, and no U. S. Geologist has ever made a report of her geological measure

Why may not our present Legislature, amid the "din of war and clash" of arms, send such an officer into the field and place the rocky condition of our State along side of her sisters? If rocks and mountains be the standard of comparison, the "Great West" must blush when such a comparison is made. *

The Fair--Not to be Forgotten.

Our State Fair is near at hand. In order to make it successful, we should have numerous exhibitors, as well as numerous visitors. On the gate and entrance fees we rely to pay the incidental expenses of the Fair and a large amount of the premiums. We trust, therefore, the friends of progressive farming will be on hand with their articles for competition and premiums, and that the visitors will be counted by the thousand.

The preparations for the Fair are ample. The ground will be well-fenced; the building for the preservation of fine articles in all kinds of weather, will be reared; all other buildings will be convenient and sufficient. The grounds for trying the gaits of horses and for riding will be in the best order.

There will be set apart beautiful grounds for camping. The Superintendent of the grounds, or his assistant, will point out the grounds to be thus occupied by families who will attend the Fair and enjoy the interesting exhibition in great comfort and at little expense. Ample provisions will be made in town for the accommodation of others with board and lodging We expect and intend to have a grand time The people of Oregon who have never been present at any any of the great annual Fairs in the older States, will be well compensated for the little trouble it may cost them to visit this Fair We expect they will be astonished at what Oregon can do in getting up a State Fair Every farmer and citizen of Oregon is interested in making the coming Fair a success. We shall have many lookers on from other States as well as our own, who have never seen a State Fair in Oregon

* * *

We beg to say to our farmers—for we think the matter important—that some action of our Legislature will be required at its present session to secure the ample donation made by Congress to the farmers and mechanics of Oregon for educational purposes. If secured, it will be sufficient to pay the salaries of all the instructors and other incidental expenses of an Industrial College, which shall educate our sons for the farm, for the work-shop and what is of as much importance, as instructors for our common schools The intelligent farmers of the East have long been desirous of raising the standard of education in the industrial walks of life They want schools in which to learn their sons and daughters that which they need to know in their especial professions We believe that it will be all important that our friends at the Fair, before the adjournment of the Legislature, should take some action upon this subject We must not let this donation pass out of our hands

We want a full turn out at the Fair of the bone, the muscle, and the sinews of our State We believe we shall see it there

The Address at the Fair.

The Address will be delivered by Hon R P Boise Judge Boise is a practical farmer as well as a gentleman of eminent legal acquirements, and his address cannot fail of being practical and instructive One thing may be depended upon The Judge is no hand at smoothing his sentences and rounding his periods His address will not be of the rose water stamp—nought but the perfume It will be plain, terse, practical, solid—just like the speaker, and just like the farmers whom he is to address That is what we want to hear The day for Sophomoric declamations is past What the people want and what the Judge will give, is an address solid, practical, and forcible

The Time for Holding the Fair.

The State Society could not have selected a better season for holding the State Fair The cool weather of autumn will have succeeded the intense heat of summer It is also a safe distance ahead of our rainy weather The farmers will have nearly all their crops stored Preparations for the rainy winter will have been nearly all completed, and the farmers, feeling that independence and security which always accompanies a competence, will all turn out to the Fair, and with their families, enjoy themselves beyond all measure

ONCE A CENTURY.—Our citizens have noticed that quite large fir trees, in the lower part of the city, which were surrounded by the high water, are now dying This shows that there has been no such high water during the years of their growth And we have been informed that a gentleman on the Columbia River took the pains to cut down a large fir that had died since the high water, and found, by counting the yearly growths, that it was over a hundred years old This shows that it has been at least a century since the Columbia River rose to such a height as it reached the middle of last June. May it be another century before it so rises again

Address, DR L J CZAPKAY, San Francisco

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages Strictures Gleet Gravel Diabetes diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder Mercurial Rheumatism Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles Diseases of the Lungs Throat Nose and Eyes Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers Dropsy Epileptic Fits, St Vitus Dance—and all Diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes Loss of Sight, Wakefulness Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure The medicines prescribed are pleasant without odor, entirely vegetable causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam During fifteen years of practice in Europe the Atlantic States and California I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a perfect and permanent cure Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of [illegible] and many other diseases and [illegible] the human family A permanent cure is [illegible]—a majority of cases falling into the hands of [illegible] persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which [illegible] itself in scrofula tetter ulcers eruptions and other affections of the skin eyes throat and lungs entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave It [illegible] the nervous system rapidly wastes away the energies of life causes mental derangement prevents the proper development of the system disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures — Medicines with full directions, sent to any part of the State Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR L J CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street below Montgomery opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three persons suffering from the pangs of disease, who having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude make known their cases and remedial agent and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The dictates of humanity imperatively command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate—The undersigned desirous of informing those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief from such maladies can be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr L J Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practice of self-abuse [illegible]
